ENCOURAGING.

The outlook for the remonetization of silver is most encouraging. The Populists of Virginia have increased their vote in one year over 600 per cent. In Alabama they have a clear majority over both the gold-bug parties of 30,000. Tom Watson has revolutionized Georgia, the empire State of the South. In Texas the enrolled membership of the People's party clubs has been increased to 235,000, more than 130,000 above the silver vote cast for Weaver and Field in that State in 1892. In all the States of the Union silver clubs are being organized with great success. Everywhere the cry is more money and there is intense feeling and more determination among the friends of sound and an adequate supply of currency than ever before. Even the Republican party in the States East of the Mississippi river furnished four votes in the extra session of Congress favorable to silver. The silver sentiment is being greatly diffused in that party. Extending from the lake of the woods, the source of the Mississippi, to the Florida reefs, the abode of the alligator, and from Codfish Bay, the home of Tom Reed, to the Golden Gate, by the site of Sam Davis' '49 camp, it east twelve silver votes in the present congress. Notwithstanding the leaders of the Republican and Democratic parties have united as one party to defeat silver legislation and to maintain the gold standard and the contraction of the currency in the interest of the bondholders and moneyed rings, their followers are deserting them by thousands and no party clasp, side issues, false professions, hypocrisy and downright lying can stop the stampede. The people are reading chapter after chapter of the object lessons of poverty and misery the old parties have given the country in legislating millions into the coffers of the rich, while they have despoiled the masses their substance. Thus making millionaires by the thousands and paupers by the millions. They are witnesses to the ravages of the panic inaugurated last year to aid the old parties to establish the gold standard and in the issuing of more bonds. For the next few years they will be unwilling witnesses to harder times, more destitution and general distress and bankruptcy than ever before. It is as impossible to revive business and send invigorating life blood throbbing and pulsating through the arteries of trade and channels of commerce with the present supply of money as it is to quench the thirst and restore the famishing traveler upon the sun scorched desert with the evanescent dew drops from a cloudless sky. There is no legislation that congress can enact that will give substantial relief to the country except to provide for more money to circulate among the people. The first step is an act for the free coinage of silver, to be supplemented by an act for the issuing of paper money by the government, a legal tender for all dues, public and private, and in such quantities that the gold, silver and paper money combined shall be sufficient in volume for the business, the energies and industry of the American people.

Such legislation will never be had from either of the old parties. To expect such relief from these parties is but the fancy of idiosyncrasy. It has no more foundation in fact or probability than the formation and floating of an iceberg upon the billowy waves of the liquid fire of damnation in the plutonian realms of his satanic majesty. It is a duty every man owes to himself, his family and his country, to throw his whole soul in the work of overthrowing the old parties and placing the government back in the hands of the people. The hopes and aspirations of humanity urge him forward to the task, in order that business life and activity be speedily restored and our country again set in motion in the pathway of that glorious destiny for which our government was ordained and established.—Silver State.

Anarchism.
Rome, March 10.—The police are inclined to the belief that it was the intention to explode the bomb in the Chamber of Deputies, which fortunately had adjourned some time before that usual hour, owing to the indisposition of Crispi. Many believe that the action of the deputies in rejecting the proposal to hold a national exposition in Rome, which would have given employment to a large number of workmen, was the inciting cause of the explosion. The prisoner Pelidieri, who is believed to be the bomb-thrower, still protests his innocence. The police now believe that the bomb outrage was the work of Anarchists, who were displeased at the proposal of the Deputies to prosecute the Socialist member Felice Gluffrida, who is charged with being implicated in the recent Sicilian agitation. Eight persons were injured by the explosion. Two men and two women have been arrested on suspicion.
